Counsel should be prepared at the conference to enter into a joint pre-trial statement and binding case management schedule setting forth the possibility or probability of settlement, facts which can be stipulated and those remaining in contention, special legal issues, if any, and a time-table for the amendment of pleadings, the filing of motions, the exchange of expert witness reports and medical and hospital records, the termination of discovery and the trial of the action. Local Rule 27

Creation of the Ashtabula Municipal Court Specialized Recovery Court Docket

A. Creation of a Specialized Recovery Court Docket:

The Ashtabula Municipal Court has established the following Specialized Recovery Court Docket according to the requirements set forth in the Superintendence Rule 36.20 through Superintendence 36.29:

1. Recovery Court: This Specialized Docket was established in 2017 (certification granted on June 15, 2018) with the goal of addressing the unique needs of the offenders with identified substance abuse issues that contributed to the underlying offense while increasing the likelihood of future criminal justice involvement. The goal of the Recovery Court Program is to reduce the likelihood of recidivism through intensive treatment, supervision and personal accountability.

B. Placement in the Recovery Court:

Potential participants can be referred to the Ashtabula Municipal Recovery Court through various ways including, but not limited to:

1. Solicitor referral
2. Judge referral
3. Probation referral
4. Defense Counsel referral
5. Jail referral
6. Treatment provider referral
7. Self-referral

A referral can be made at any stage of the court process, arraignment, pretrial, plea agreement, change of plea, intervention in lieu of conviction, post-plea, sentencing while currently court supervision/probation or as a result of a probation violation. The referring agent will complete an application form and give the form to the Solicitor. He will then contact the Drug Court Administrator (DCA), who will interview the potential participant and conduct an initial screening. If deemed appropriate, the DCA will contact the Probation Department to further evaluate the potential participant. If the potential participant is deemed eligible for the Specialized Docket, they are referred for a substance abuse evaluation to initiate the assessment process. All potential participants referred to the Ashtabula Municipal Recovery Court are screened using the Ohio Risk Assessment System, (ORAS).

a. Recovery Court Eligibility Criteria

1. The target population are “high risk/high need” offenders. A high risk/high need offender is an individual who is addicted to illicit drugs or alcohol and is at substantial risk for reoffending or failing to complete a less intensive disposition, such as standard probation or pretrial supervision.
2. Individuals can qualify for the Recovery Court Program as part of an intervention in lieu of conviction or post-conviction treatment and will be appropriate for care in the community as part of supervision by probation for a misdemeanor offense.
3. The program is voluntary, not everyone that is appropriate will be accepted and the potential participant must be motivated and receptive to complete the program.
4. The participant would benefit from the program by seeking substance abuse treatment.
5. The participant must reside within the jurisdiction of the Ashtabula Municipal Court, which is Ashtabula City, Ashtabula, Plymouth and Saybrook Townships.
6. The primary diagnosis is a substance abuse disorder.
7. Defendants charged with: DUI/OVI, drug trafficking, and sex crimes are ineligible to participate. Crimes involving children or elderly as victims, or violent offenses involving a victim with a serious injury, are ineligible to participate. Crimes involving a weapon are ineligible. (All of the above can be waived by the Solicitor with the consent of the alleged victim.)

C. Case Assignment

Judge Laura DiGiacomo is the only presiding Judge at Ashtabula Municipal Court.

D. Drug Court Administrator/Probation Officer Role

The role of the DCA is to maintain the daily operations of the Recovery Court Docket. The DCA will meet with potential participants upon referral. The Probation Officer will work collaboratively with the DCA regarding the participants’ compliance with program. All offenders referred to the Recovery Court Docket are screened using the ORAS. The DCA/Probation Officer monitor the participants’ compliance with their supervision/treatment plans by gathering collateral information from the treatment providers. The DCA/Probation Officer further monitors the participants’ compliance with incentives, sanctions, phase advancement, successful completing and termination. The DCA/Probation Officer may conduct visits to the participants’ residence. The DCA/Probation Officer attend each treatment team meeting and status review hearing. During treatment team meetings, the DCA/Probation Officer inform the treatment team whether treatment plans, supervision plans, and Court orders are being followed. The DCA/Probation Officer further advise the Judge of any Recovery Court violations, provides progress reports and recommendations to the treatment team, and participates in discussions about incentives, sanctions, phase advancement, successful completion, and termination. The DCA regularly communicates with the Probation Officer. The DCA/Probation Officer will meet regularly with the participant and frequency will depend upon the phase of the participant. Participants are informed of the role of the DCA/Probation Officer and treatment phases through the program description, participant handbook, and signed participant agreement. Participants, therefore, will understand the relationship between the Court and treatment service providers and ancillary services, as well as expectations for compliance. The plan is an ever-evolving document that follows the participant through every stage of the program, thus ensuring continuity and that all identified issues and risks are addressed even beyond Recovery Court involvement.

E. Termination from the Recovery Court Program

1. Criteria for Successful Completion are the guidelines used to identify how the Recovery Court participants can successfully complete the program.

While the program is based on a relatively standard set of expectations, each case is assessed individually and the Judge makes the final determination of successful completion.

The following indicate a positive accomplishment to be considered for successful completion/graduation:

Participants will work through four (4) phases over the duration of their time in the Recovery Court Program. These phases are used as general guidelines that can be modified to meet a participant's specific circumstances and needs. The phases have been designed to allow the participant an opportunity to move from a more restrictive environment to a less restrictive one over a period of months. Advancement through the phases is based upon individual performance as recommended by the treatment team. Advancement through the phases of the program is contingent upon a participant's performance rather than a pre-determined timeline. The minimum time for involvement in the Recovery Court Program is eighteen (18) months to twenty-four (24) months and not less than twelve (12) months.

Compliant behavior/accomplishments may include:

- Demonstrated abstinence from alcohol and drugs as evidenced by submitting negative screens for a minimum of ninety (90) days prior to graduation;
- Successfully completed treatment and continues to regularly attend required self-help recovery programs, such as AA/NA or other Court approved evidence based programs;

Upon successful completion of all phases of the Recovery Court Program, the treatment team will recommend that the participant be recognized for their successful completion of the program. The treatment team conducts a review of the compliant behaviors and accomplishments, to include, drug testing results, violations/sanctions, incentives, treatment compliance, and aftercare activities. The treatment team makes a formal recommendation to the Judge for graduation. Judge Laura DiGiacomo has the discretion to determine when the participant will successfully complete the program. This recognition ceremony is conducted in the court where the Judge presents the participant with a completion certificate.

Graduating participants are encouraged to invite family and friends to attend. The event may also be attended by members from the treatment team, advisory committee, law enforcement, and entire probation department. The Judge will make a formal statement indicating the accomplishments of the graduate, thus reinforcing expectation for other participants.

Depending upon the case type, the underlying case is closed, or in cases implementing intervention in lieu of conviction, the underlying case is dismissed.

There are two types of written termination criteria from Recovery Court, unsuccessful and neutral discharge. The Judge has the discretion to terminate the participant from Recovery Court in accordance with the termination criteria:

Common behaviors that lead to unsuccessful termination include, but are not limited to the following:

- Ongoing noncompliance with treatment;
- Resistance to treatment;
- New serious criminal convictions;
- A serious Recovery Court infraction or series of infractions; or
- A serious probation violation or series of probation violations.

Common effects of unsuccessful termination include:

- Loss of future eligibility for the Recovery Court or other Specialized Docket;
- Further legal action, including revocation of intervention in lieu of conviction, or motion for probable cause, probation violation; and
- Depending on the circumstances, the participant maybe subject to jail and other penalties.

To further explain, if you are an intervention in lieu participant and unsuccessfully terminated from the program for your failure to comply with the terms and conditions of the program, the stay of legal proceedings will be lifted and you will be sentenced to the usual sanctions allowable under the law for the offense(s). Disposition of the charge(s) will then be determined by the Judge and the Solicitor.

If you are a post-conviction participant and unsuccessfully terminated from the program or your failure to comply with the terms and conditions of the program, a complaint for violation of probation will be filed and the matter will be set for a violation hearing. Should the Court determine that you violated the terms of probation for being terminated from the program, then you will be sentenced to the usual sanctions allowable under the law for the offense.

2. Neutral Discharge: There may be circumstances in which the participant is discharged from the Recovery Court through a neutral discharge status. This status is assessed in situations when the participant has reached maximum benefit for various reasons:

- A serious medical condition;
- A serious mental-health condition;
- Death;
- Any other factor that may keep the participant from meeting the requirements for successful completion.

3. Inactive or suspension status: There may be circumstances where a participant is placed in inactive or suspension status for the following reasons:

- Placed in a residential facility and cannot be transported for status review hearings;
- Charged with new crimes pending adjudication and/or final disposition for sentencing;
- In need of further assessments or evaluations to determine if the Recovery Court is beneficial to the participant and the program;
- If the participant is unable/unwilling to comply with program requirements in a timely manner as directed;
- The participant has an outstanding warrant/s for non-compliance from the Recovery Court and the issue has not been resolved.

These rules adopted this 30th day of July, 2018, and shall be effective June 30th, 2018. These rules shall supersede and replace prior local rules of the Ashtabula Municipal Court.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
